Dear Mrs Kelley:-

This morning
when I read the sad news I was shocked beyond words, and grieved. Dear Lady, there are no words of mine that can bring help to you I know but to you and your dear boy I send my best my deepest love. Franklin is bearing this to you and Twish Beta might be with you but she is still far from strong & I hardly dare to let her go. If there is anything we can do let us do it. We shall be glad, glad, to do so for we love you. If you can come to us we shall be mighty glad to welcome you. My mother's house was yours as you know, mine is for her sake and because of the affection I have and always shall have for you.

Ever your friend
Henry D. Lloyd
