IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY

W.C. Ritchie & Company, an Illinois Corporation, W. E.
Ritchie, Anna Kusserow and Dora Windeguth

vs.

In Chancery

John E.W. Wayman as States
Attorney for Cook County and Edgar T. Davies as Chief Factory Inspector for the State of Illinois and Cook
County

The joint and several demurrer of John E. W. Wayman as State's Attorney for Cook County, Illinois, and Edgar T. Davies as Chief Factory Inspector for the State of Illinois, to the joint bill of complaint of W. C. Ritchie & Company, W. E. Ritchie, Anna Kusserow and Dora Windeguth, complainants.

These defendants, by protestation, not confessing or acknowledging all or any of the matters and things in the said bill of complaint contained to be true, in such manner and form as the same are therein and thereby set forth and alleged, demur to said bill, and for cause of demur show that said Ten Hour Law in said bill of complaint referred to is a valid and constitutional enactment of the Legislature of the State of Illinois and wholly within the power of the Legislature to enact.

Wherefore, and for divers other good causes of demurrer appearing in the said bill of complaint, these defendants demur to the said bill and to all the matters and things therein contained, and pray the judgment of this Honorable Court whether they shall be compelled to make any further or other answer to the said bill, and they pray to be dismissed with their reasonable costs in this behalf sustained.

John E. W. Wayman as State's Attorney for Cook County, Illinois, and Edgar T. Davies as Chief Factory Inspector for the State of Illinois.
